

PRESS RELEASE - SHARES/AJ BELL INVESTOR LIVE IN LONDON
EVENT – 17 SEPTEMBER

Sys Group will be presenting at the Shares/AJ Bell investor evening
LIVE in London on 17 September 18.00

SysGroup (SYS) is a managed service provider of end-to-end data solutions enabling us to take our customers on their AI data journey. The Group offers an integrated set of modern technologies that collectively meets our customers end-to-end data needs including connectivity, cloud hosting, delivery, analytics and governance of customer data, as well as a security layer for users and applications.

The Shares and AJ Bell Media LIVE evening investor event is an opportunity for senior board directors to make a presentation about their company and update existing & potential investors on their business plans.

Investors will have the chance to meet company directors and discover investment opportunities and get to know the company better by asking questions live and in person after the presentation over drinks and canapes.
